Prophecy – The Family Prayer Center

The Birth of the Fulness Is At Hand

Prophecy210711a – July 11, 2021

I'll get over to you, meaning this bunch and others like you that are on this walk, the reality of the change that I'm asking. For many of you are pregnant with that, male and female, with the beginning stages of that. And even in your dry seasons of worship, My promise within you is something that produces a river not only for your life, but for the entire Body of Christ. So again, I am petitioning you as My select and those who have chosen, come apart. Come away with Me, again I say these words, and [come] to this place which will produce the atmosphere for tomorrow, says the Spirit of the Lord. It is today, but it is tomorrow as well. For [there will be a] great group that will be born. Sons and daughters of this House, and those that are watching, sons and daughters of those particular locales, will be birthed out of atmosphere and not formula, says the Spirit of the Lord.

Your sacrifice in prayer – rejoice when it is dry, rejoice when it is wet with presence. Because either or, and in both, I am producing something first in you that will tsunami and move in waves that will change the atmosphere over this city, and other cities, and over regions. Carry the atmosphere with you, says the Spirit of the Lord. Create your own atmosphere for Me to dwell in, and others to dwell in. Let it be said of you, "That man, that woman carries something that is absolutely different than most people."

These things are close. These things are close, says the Spirit of the Lord. Envision the grounds full. Let your hope see into the spirit, and speak those things not of the natural, but of the spirit, says the Spirit of the Lord. Every word spoken, every prayer prayed is labor pains towards this birthing, whether in this place, or every locale where truth is being followed, says the Spirit of the Lord. For this is one river, one river with many tributaries, says the Spirit of the Lord. Join your tributary to this river and cause it to flow more thoroughly, and let it pick up speed as it flows towards the healing of the nations, and towards the sea, says the Spirit of the Lord.

This is not an hour to put your trust on the weight of the natural, says the Spirit of the Lord. Transfer the weight of the natural and the expectation of life from the natural realm, and change it over into the spirit realm, says the Spirit of Grace. "How do I do this?" ask many. Continue to spend your time in My presence, transferring this place, the natural to the supernatural. [I will] that your whole life is transferred over, that nothing is left out; not family, finances, or any ambitions in this life. I'm calling you. I'm calling you, intercessors. I'm calling those to have ears to hear, week after week, saying much of the same thing over and over again, that you hear Me very thoroughly. This is your hour. The birth of the fulness is at hand, says the Spirit of the Lord.

For many of you, if you'll give access to it, you'll notice that not only here, but in your private times, that your tongue in the Spirit will begin to change at times. I'm coming with another level of My anointing to your prayer time. Several and many are going to go in, male and female, into the labor pains of intercession. I will show you what these things are. At times you'll notice that your spiritual tongue changes, and maybe even ever so slightly. But you'll also notice if you look inwardly, a burden, a sense of necessity. It will last a few minutes at times, [and] five, ten, fifteen minutes at other intervals. I am teaching you meticulously by My Spirit as I stand in your midst as the Lord of the Church. [This is] what I'm asking of you and from you for Me to be able to levy My authority to this generation.

I cannot do this without you. If I could, I would have already. But I must come through the authority of My believers, male and female. For those that are going through the purging process, you're qualifying yourself. You're qualifying yourself [so] that Satan cannot destroy you, nor has any investment in your life. And all the things that are yet to be purged are already under My covering, as you are obedient to continue to fast, and to pray, and to seek My face, says the Spirit of the Lord. Do not be weary in welldoing. For you will reap if you faint not.

What do your feelings, your natural feelings in prayer, what does that have to do with anything concerning My anointing? says the Spirit of the Lord. Know that it is of faith that all these things are accessed. So whether in dryness, or what seems to be an absence from My presence, these things are to be disregarded and prayed through, not with your strength, but with My strength. As you worship, and when things tighten and when things get dry, pray in the Spirit and go back into worship, and continue on this manner. Just speak in tongues and allow the Holy Spirit to help you in this birthing. For I see in the spirit. I see all things clearly and precisely what you cannot see.

It is not just the dying of the flesh. It is of a necessity to win this war, that is part of it. But the other part is the accuser of the brethren, and those spiritual forces that come right down not only to a church service, but also to your living room, to your bedroom, to your prayer closet, etc. They have been sent to hold back, and to hold you from coming into this place of progress, says the Spirit of the Lord. Do not contend with them as to begin to focus upon them. If I come to you and tell you to speak, then speak. If you have an unction or urge inside of you, speak to them, dismiss them. But otherwise, continue to press in worship. For My Spirit, My presence alone will dispel, and bring forth a glory that will set upon you in these last days.