Eye hath not Seen and Ear hath not Heard

In my house are many rooms; I go to prepare a place for you; I have it ready; I want to come for you; I long for you, but there is work we must do; I love my children; I love them all like I love you; I've prepared a place for you; I have it set up and ready for you; I have not left you alone; cling to my Holy Spirit; He will see you through; come close; come close; I want to hold you; I want to love you. You desire me and I desire you; I want to you like you want me; I want you; come, come away with me and let me love you; let me love you; I made you for my pleasure; please come let me show you this great love I have for you; there is so much more; I have so much more waiting here in this room for you; I love you; yes I love you; I'm always here for you.

Eye hath not seen and ear hath not heard; neither has it entered into the heart of the natural man what I have prepared for you; but I have revealed and am revealing these things to you by my Spirit saith the Spirit of Grace. For this which I speak of is your inheritance; understand this, that as sure as you know that gross darkness is coming upon the planet and there is a separation, one of which I am grieved of even in my house; For did I not say that in a great house there are many vessels? Vessels of honor and vessels of dishonor; but I desire and this is my promise and you can find it in my word that as these things increase there will also be a glory that will increase upon those who seek this place of intimacy and fellowship; as sure as the darkness grows on the other side my light will shine upon you and in you saith the spirit of Grace. This is a literal room in my Spirit; This place you've known through the avenue of worship; but understand this that I desire and will have it so that in the not-too-distant future I will envelop you in a place; you will learn this place as a practice of the Spirit; many of you have learned this place already and much of your day is dwelling in that room; even when you're not in prayer in the posture of prayer you'll be in that place; even when you're not in front of my word you'll still be in this place saith the Spirit of Grace. I will carry you through step-by-step to learn as the first begotten my son the prototype how that he dwelt in me continually. In this place there is no lack; there is no fear; there is no distraction. In this place of your mind; therefore I can work through you to minister to others that are in need; For much of my church is distracted by their own needs and their fight that they themselves are going through; this place will not only meet you're need but before that need is met in the natural, it will totally consume your world that you live in; so know that the entrance of that place is fellowship with me; this is the witness on the inside of you that there is more. Come up higher; the natural man cannot understand these things, but those that are spiritual are hearing; it is entering into your heart; something is saying there is more; come up higher; receive of me says the Spirit of Grace; again I say to you that these meetings are held for that regard that you understand another line upon line. I'm coming; I am coming; I will visit you; I will visit you before that last judgment saith the Spirit of Grace and you will be glad for these days; so now rejoice and determined to be exceedingly glad in my presence. Hallelujah!
