Walk Free from the Status Quo of the Church

Many decisions are being made; watch your decisions saith the Spirit of Grace. Listen to my spirit. I say to all of you every day, every day wait on my spirit. For many of you believe, who love me that I have spoken to you; I say to you not every dream that comes to you is from me saith the Spirit of the Lord. I'm asking a church to rise up to know when the Devil comes and when I come, but more importantly I'm asking you to know when your flesh is taking you astray, saith the Spirit of grace. I have given you a perfect plan through my spirit to walk into me into who I am; so know this, one hour, one hour in my presence praying in tongues brings you all the more closer to that perfect place where you'll know my will and the things that you speak and the things that you call on me for will come to pass; you are not earning it saith the Spirit of Grace, but you're coming to a place to know who you are in me, saith the Spirit of the Lord. Know this that many people that people pray for will die, they will die; Many people that thousands pray for will die. But I'm not in that but I am resurrecting my church to understand the difference between emotions and what is spirit; for it is a lost art saith the Spirit of Grace. Know this do not look and say oh, oh but so many employed the name of the Lord, but so few knew me, saith the Spirit of Grace. I am asking for a generation to come up and to know me like never before and to walk free from emotions and walk free from the status quo of the church and what the church says is God today; I'm asking you to know me in an inner place of your spirit, saith the Spirit of the Lord. Hallelujah
