

Prophecies - The Family Prayer Center - 2014

Prophecy140126 January 26th 2014

I will Reform this Church

Did I not say that nothing and I meant nothing has the capacity, the power to separate you from my love says the Spirit of Grace. Not height, not depth, not things present, not things to come, not life nor death, principality, power, ruler, no matter what he formed against you in this life it had no capacity to separate you from my love. This love is not only a love that comes to you; this love is the love that is to saturate you continuously in my presence. For have I not written and said that my love cast out all fear for I am raising up, I am raising up those who are listening in these last days to go forth to begin the process to bring my son back to this earth and to bring about the sanctification and the glorification of my saints and to bring all things to pass that I've desired. For the church that I left is not the church that's in existence but I will reform this church; I will bring forth the church in the last days to produce the exact image of my son in the Earth saith the Spirit of Grace. In that image there is no sickness. In that image there is no disease. In that image there is no permission for sin and for degradation and for fear and all the things that have held my body as parasites and pulled and sapped the life out of my children. I am raising up an army. I am raising up a voice in the earth to all those who hear let him hear what the Spirit has to say; separate yourself come unto me and know this very presence; this very presence. For I'm able to come and to give it to you twenty four seven says the Spirit of Grace.