The Intent of Your Heart is a Contemplation of Finding a Place Set Apart

There is a place to me that few find but it's available for all, for anyone who steps behind the veil. I'm asking you to come here. I've provided a way. I provided the way through the cross and then I empowered you with a spirit, a nature that comes from me and is taught of me. Anyone that would seek my face would find the path; this path is not for those who are not looking for it; they won't stumble on it; but if you look for it you'll find it. On this path is everything that you are searching for. Everything that you desire both in the natural and in the spirit is on this path. Every answer, every question answered; every thought brought into effect. Rest in me. I'm calling you like I called those of old and anyone since. I'm saying seek my face. Your response in this is quite necessary for those who come up higher in me and those who turn aside and see what's in the bush that burns, what makes, what makes it burn but not consumed. The curiosity of being able to go into a place that you have never been and believe that it is the end result what you have need of. For many hear my words and they are lost before they enter the parking lot because there's no intent. I say unto you that the intent of your heart is a contemplation of finding a place set apart and in that place set apart, you'll find incredible strength in my presence, saith the Spirit of Grace.
