I Nursemaid you

For all things are possible. But the next part of that is believing so much so that you'll do the things necessary. For he that cometh before me must believe that I am and then believing that I am going to that place where you believe that I'll come; that you believe that I will come as a result of your continual staying before me, staying on my word. For I am a re-warder of those who diligently seek me, saith the Spirit of Grace. Stay in that place. For many things that have not yet come to pass will come to pass even in this year, saith the Spirit of Grace. You'll find that things of yesteryear and things that were old things that hung around for a long, long time, you'll find that I Nursemaid you; I Nursemaid you. I bring you in as children, I don't jerk you up. Even those that I expect to be strong I don't jerk you up. So I'll feed you here and I'll feed you there and what I'm is this, I'll prove, I'll prove your faith. I will build you up line on line. And those things that you continue to speak you'll find that more and more of the miracle comes on line and comes to place because what I'm building you for, I'm building you for the great explosion of the great miracles that will take place. So I'll build your faith, watching those things, what you would call small things come to pass; they will grow in intensity and they'll grow in the multitude of things happening for you. I could do all; I can do anything in a moments time but I'm building your faith. As you see these things come to pass your faith will be built line on line. There will come a time where you'll really believe and walk in that place that all things are possible, saith the Spirit of Grace.
