Ordination of Life

If indeed, if indeed you take the ordination to be ordained unto life, to be ordained unto the place that I am calling you, If indeed you take the ordination to have your life interrupted to allow me to come as truly the Lord over your life and begin to direct and to orchestrate the steps of your life to begin to bring you into the fullness of the call that I've had for you from the very beginning. If indeed you desire this place, then I will come. I will come and I will stir within you a hunger. I'll come and stir within you a desire. I'll come and stir with inside of you a place that I'm allowed to come and bring an interruption to your life for the purpose of what I've called you to for I desire a great harvest in this hour and I desire those who are willing to lay down their life for the life of the gospel. So receive the ordination of life and know that inside of it are many things to overcome and many things to walk past and I am with you saith the Spirit of Grace and there is more victory inside of the fight than there is outside of the fight, saith the Spirit of Grace. Stand inside of me and allow the ordination of grace to come upon you so strong and you'll say that I'd rather be in the fire; I'd rather be in the fire with him then on the outside of the fire without him, saith the Spirit of Grace.
