A Place of Possibility

Prophecy151227A

Know that I am the God of the impossible and before this next year is over many of you that are standing in places of faith will see the impossible come to a place of possibility, saith Spirit of the Lord. It will cost you nothing but provide for you all things to stand in faith. It cost you nothing in this that if you place yourself out there and put all weight on the word, you'll find at the end that you were not ashamed that you trusted in me, saith the Spirit of Grace.
