

Prophecies - The Family Prayer Center - 2016

Prophecy160515 May 5t 2016

Absolute Takeover of My Spirit

I prophecy, saith the Spirit of Grace, proceeds from the Father that they will come in the not-too-distant future services in my presence that as you would say would blow you away. You'll come in, the minister will come in prepared, given my words but there will be an absolute takeover of my Spirit. The very walls will shake in the reverence and the power of my glory. Everything to this point has been preparing you. Even the trials that you faced not sent of me but to stir and shake your very world to get you to quit but in the midst of it, I've used my word to train you. I will bring as I have promised from the very beginning that which Joel my prophet prophesied of the last days that there will be an army that will absolutely over take the earth in glory and power, saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah; glory be to God; glory. You'll go out of this house drunken by my spirit and the things that now have somewhat of a capacity to disturb or to distract your ongoing world, those things will not even receive an honorable mention in your vocabulary. You'll bypass them; you'll step over them on a daily basis. I've called you. I've called you to the greater things to win a world for me. I will visit you. I will visit you often with great outpourings in the days ahead, saith the Spirit of Grace.