Choice is Grafted in with Grace

For anyone who believes that I am; then the Grace comes to believe and to have the strength to do whatever it takes to go in, saith the Spirit of Grace. Believe that I am and then believe that I am a rewarder of them who diligently seek me, saith the Spirit of Grace. For the hardest decision in faith is that first step of engagement against everything of the flesh. But once the engagement takes place and your choice is grafted in with Grace my strength for your weakness; then when you make that choice then what is to follow is more and more of the grace that begin the choice. More strength. More strength. For much and for the most part my church is engulfed with emotions and live by those same things in their walk and in their fellowship, but I say that the church that I am searching for and the one that will cause this last day outpouring, will have very little to do with the emotions of the flesh, but will continually engage in a place of faith believing that I am and that I am a rewarder of them that diligently seek me, saith the Spirit of Grace. So, on the cusp of this year and on the cusp of a life yet to be lived in front of you, choose that engagement. Choose the choice. Choose the choice. But yours is given a choice. Choose; choose wisely, saith the Spirit of Grace.
