Prophecy170312B You're So Distracted

This is my time to meet with you, saith the Spirit of Grace. Since you've sectioned off this time on this day and on these days, these Sundays, give me all, give me all. Why would you come and do anything but give me all, saith the Spirit of Grace; From the moment that you come in the door the moment that you leave why would you do anything but give me all? Even every necessary thing and I know that there are necessary things.

Now I'm going to talk to you like he talks and this is me talking now because, God doesn't talk in (these, though and thuses) he just talks plain, that's what prophecy is.

Even in the things of the necessity, where there's little ones and children involved, I know because I helped to create these. I know these things are very necessary. Life is necessary but in that there is grace for everything there's grace in a service, there is grace in your life. My strength in that to stay focused. The enemy would love to bring you and here and do everything possible to distract you while you are here. Then many wonder why they're not going places in Christ. Why they're not going anyplace. And many stand on the outside of the church refusing to come in; refusing to come in and sit down. If they would just eat a few meals and allow this to totally be digested to them. It would begin to drive out the poison, the strong toxins in their spiritual anatomy which has them thinking and doing things contrary to unity, saith the Spirit of Grace.

For many stand on the outside few come in but those who come in are full. Those who come in are replenished; those who come in are restored. Do not think that you have left Satan or the flesh outside of these walls, he follows you in and he sits down beside you and he bids for your time and he bids for your mind and he bids for your energy and absorbs most of everything that's in atmosphere so that there's very little, very little profit that's transferred over to you.

Now this is amazing to me; I'm going back out, and I hear this; I never really heard this before.

About 10% about 10% is the average margin; that most who come into my house ever receive from what is actually there. In the atmosphere there's so much to be plugged into. In the atmosphere there is healing, there's deliverance; there's restoration. The mind can be restored. The things that you call vices, stronghold, those things can be absolutely taken out of the way, extinguished; but for so little to be plugged in and so little for me to be able to get over to you, even though I am an almighty source. Have you not read my gospels that Jesus could do no mighty miracles, no mighty works in that place because of their in belief? I'm still God. I can do all thing, but I am limited. I am limited to you based on your obedience to me and I can get nothing over to you; although you stand on the other side of the door and cry out, I need deliverance. I need help.

I need this and I need that and I am standing on this side. You don't have to wait long hours for me. I'm ready. I'm the one who approaches you. I'm the one who teaches you that I am ready willing and able to give you all but you are distracted. You're so distracted that when you come and then when you go and even at the best moment and you say that was wonderful I got something, still at the most you've not received nearly what my atmosphere could provide for you. About 10% is the average of what anyone gets out of the atmosphere of any given service, saith the Spirit of Grace.

Is there more? I could only use these equations to get over to you how much more there is. In truth, in truth one given service in my presence with you fully invested could begin a path that when you walked out, you'd feel 100 pounds lighter. Many testify, many testify in which is a true phenomenon that the day, the hour that they got born again, there was a lightness; a heaviness came off of them. It almost felt physical. This is true because when the spirit man is changed you are seated in another place and the burden of sin is so exhilarating; the burden that is lifted is so exhilarating, the body even feels the effect of it. Do you think that that particular experience that particular phenomenon is supposed to end at the new birth? I've given you a spirit like mine; then I baptized you with myself and anything that comes against you in this life I never meant for it to stay. It never came from me if it brought heaviness, if it brought desperation. Why, why saith the Spirit of Grace? Why saith the Spirit of Grace? Why would so many be so willing to endure the temptation to endure and say this thing hasn't left me yet but I'm willing to go on? Finish it now live the rest of your life outside of this temptation. Choose to step across for it's all in one choice. All that I gave through the inroads to bring about your perfection, I gave them as a complementary, something complementary. These were the complementary things that I gave, even the Holy Spirit which was to bare you up. Pray the unsearchable riches of glory. He was a compliment. His gift to you was a compliment because all things were set free at the cross. The moment that you were born again all things, you were set free from all things. No fear, no vice, nothing. Nothing could hold you and to your body nothing could control your body as in sickness or disease.

So many say but these things are a long ways away from us and we do not see them. They are not. They are not a long ways. They are standing at the door. When so little is invested and there is no anger on my side of this door but just a heavy heart as a Father would, as a Father would have a heart to watch my little ones suffer day after day and my little ones, I'm not speaking of adolescence or those in diapers. I'm talking about 30-year-olds and 40-year-olds and 50-year-olds and some of you will walk out of here again today with the same vice in you and the same level of flesh, even questioning these very words, saith the Spirit of Grace. But I will meet you every time that I possibly can. I will meet you every time that I possibly can. But my will is to circumvent your life. My will is to circumvent you with great grace and with love and peace and compassion. Why, why tell another soul of your stronghold. Why tell another soul. Why even lift another petition to me when that thing is buried present tense. But the reality of that freedom is your obedience to step into it. The reality of that obedience is for you to step into everything that the cross provided. This food is free. My meal is provided to whosoever will let them come; let them come to the waters. Let them drink freely. None were turned out.

Hallelujah Jesus, we glorify you.
