The Whisper and the Power – April Letter 2025

Dear Friend,

In First Kings chapter 19, we see one of the most unusual displays of God's person contrasting Himself with a display of both explosive power and gentle strength.

The following text comes in the aftermath of Elijah the prophet's showdown on Mount Carmel with the 400 prophets of Baal.

1 Kings 19:9 And he came thither unto a cave, and lodged there; and, behold, the word of the LORD came to him, and he said unto him, What doest thou here, Elijah?

1 Kings 19:10 And he said, I have been very jealous for the LORD God of hosts: for the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away.

1 Kings 19:11 And he said, Go forth, and stand upon the mount before the LORD. And, behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and brake in pieces the rocks before the LORD; but the LORD was not in the wind: and after the wind an earthquake; but the LORD was not in the earthquake:

1 Kings 19:12 And after the earthquake a fire; but the LORD was not in the fire: and after the fire a still small voice.

Elijah had recently watched one of God's most awesome displays of power in all of the Old Testament. In a showdown challenge that loomed much larger than the old western ballad of the "Gunfight at the O.K. Corral," Elijah had challenged Jezebel's evil army of Baal prophets to a showdown of "PUT UP OR SHUT UP!"

1 Kings 18:20 So Ahab sent unto all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together unto mount Carmel.

1 Kings 18:21 And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? if the LORD be God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word.

This was Elijah's challenge to the prophets:

1 Kings 18:24 And call ye on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the LORD: and the God that answereth by fire, let him be God. And all the people answered and said, It is well spoken.

In effort to shorten a really wonderful story, the prophets of Baal did just that. They called on this demonic, child-sacrificing, false god all day long with no results. No fire! No answer!

But when Elijah called upon the one true and living God Jehovah, this was the result.

1 Kings 18:37 Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this people may know that thou art the LORD God, and that thou hast turned their heart back again.

1 Kings 18:38 Then the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.

1 Kings 18:39 And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces: and they said, The LORD, he is the God; the LORD, he is the God.

Now back to our original story of Elijah standing in the entrance of the cave looking out on the mountainside and watching the demonstration of God.

1 Kings 19:11 And he said, Go forth, and stand upon the mount before the LORD. And, behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and brake in pieces the rocks before the LORD; but the LORD was not in the wind: and after the wind an earthquake; but the LORD was not in the earthquake:

1 Kings 19:12 And after the earthquake a fire; but the LORD was not in the fire: and after the fire a still small voice.

Elijah was experiencing something in a reverse fashion compared to all of his previous experiences with God. He had been accustomed to commotion and great demonstrations of power. He had just watched God demonstrate Himself by sending fire on the sacrifice at Mount Carmel. And now, surprisingly, God is telling him that He's not in the fire that he had just witnessed? It was almost like God introduced Himself in the custom to which Elijah knew Him and then re-introduced Himself in a way that Elijah had never known Him before.

When God said He was not in the fire, it was not that He was not the one creating it, but rather the essence of His intimacy to hear the still small voice was not in the demonstration. I like to call the still small voice that Elijah heard "THE WHISPER OF GOD." This is a perfect example of our present-day intimacy with the Holy Spirit in a day-to-day walk of instruction and empowerment.

From that day forward, God started a new phase in the life and ministry of Elijah. Elijah now knew God in a different way than he ever had before. He began to coronate Kings and transition his ministry to his understudy Elisha.

It's estimated that approximately 850 years passed between Elijah's experience on Mount Carmel and the day of Pentecost. Elijah's ministry occurred during the reigns of Ahab and Jezebel, while Pentecost marked the beginning of the Church's ministry, according to the Book of Acts.

Acts 2:1 And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place.

Acts 2:2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.

Acts 2:3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

Acts 2:4 And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

The Church was birthed in much the same way Elijah saw the works on the mountain that day. Hurricane-force winds that ripped across the mountain now blew into the upper room. Fire that consumed the rocks and the trees now consumed 120 Spirit-filled believers with the power of the Holy Ghost! Glory to God!

And yet in all of this God-given commotion on the Day of Pentecost, it began because of approximately 10 days of waiting in the upper room for something or someone they had never seen or experienced before. This waiting happened because Jesus instructed them to go and wait for the “promise of the Father.” This waiting time is a what I would call “God’s Whisper Time!” It was a quiet time with seemingly nothing happening and no demonstration of power. The 120 had to be tempted to go home, and yet the Holy Spirit who had not yet come with power was whispering, “Don’t leave! Don’t quit! Don’t give up! Something is coming!”

Today, we are once again in that intimate whispering time where the Holy Spirit is telling us, “Don’t give up! Don’t stop speaking the Word! Keep transforming your mind! Keep submitting your bodies a living sacrifice! SOMETHING IS COMING!”

I know that there are many wonderful things happening already in the Church today, but nothing compares to the standard of power that we see witnessed in the First Church. It was an exact replica of the power that Jesus Himself walked in.

Those of us who are waiting in the upper room of His presence today have determined that we will not lower the mark of power and miracles that Jesus and the First Church walked in. And we have many prophecies from the Holy Spirit telling us we will actually see more than what the First Church saw. Once again, GLORY!!!!

To do this, we must WAIT IN THE WHISPER FOR THE POWER THAT CHANGES THE WORLD!

I am sending along with this letter two prophecies in which the word “whisper” is mentioned by the Holy Spirit. One is most recent, and the other is from 2012, thus fulfilling the words of Jesus:

Matthew 13:52 Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old.

Candy and I love and appreciate you so much! Thank you for your gifts and prayers for this ministry! This is not mine, but HIS and ours to steward together!

I WILL SEE YOU IN THE REVIVAL!

Blessings,
Pastor Bronc

The Whisper of My Voice
Prophecy250326 – March 26, 2025

It'll be the whisper in counseling by My Spirit that'll bring you through, says the Spirit of Grace. Step aside, for these are critical times. They're critical in the birth of that which I've promised, and they're critical in the place of bringing you all the way through where you're standing in the fight, says the Spirit of Grace. But you can trust the whisper of My voice, the counsel. Believe that those things which are coming to you in the secret places of whisper of My voice to your heart are the very, the very foundation by which My peace is established in your spirit. And if you'll walk in this peace, as My Word says that your feet will be shod with the preparation of this gospel which is peace, I'll lead you out. I'll lead you to a land in a wide place. For many stand in a narrow place; a place of pressing where hardly there feels like there is an escape. But I say unto you, listen. For you can trust the whisper of My voice.

Count these things as precious. Count these things as above all knowledge that you could receive and counsel of man. Know that the whisper of My voice, if you'll listen and trust, I'll lead you out. I'll establish you in a wide place, in a fertile land, in a land in My Spirit where My anointing breaks every yoke, says the Spirit of Grace.

This is not the end. This is not the end, this is the beginning, says the Spirit of Grace. Stand in the whisper. Listen close. Count it more precious than any counsel you could receive of friend or family. Follow it, follow it. Follow it in your dreams, in your decrees, and in your confessions. For I'm counseling each one that'll spend any time with Me, and I'm counseling with a soft voice of direction and assuring you that this is not the end, it is the beginning of all things going forward always, always to the end of the fulfillment of the promise, says the Spirit of Grace.

My Intent Is Intimacy
Prophecy121231 – December 31, 2012

There's no place that I would rather you be than in My Presence and in My love, says the Spirit of Grace. For much of My Church have only attained to one level. Many come to sit at My feet, but few come to touch My face. Many have come to have My hands touch them and to receive of My hands their provision for spirit, soul, or body. Many come looking to receive of what My hands provide. Many come to My Presence asking of My hands to supply the power. Many ask of My mind, "What is Your mind?" but few come and spend the time to get to know Me face-to-face, says the Spirit of Grace.

Do you not know at the end of this age that I will return you to the Garden? says the Spirit of Grace. What man began in the Garden, I will also return you to – a perfect planet. There will be no flesh to conquer then. You will not ask of Me – there will be nothing of provision that you will lack. There will be no kingdoms to conquer. There will be no lost to win. It will be no claiming of My Word of promises for your provision or for your health. The end of all things will be that you will be forever in a place of My Presence and communion in the power of the Holy Ghost. Why not in this age go to the end of all things? says the Spirit of Grace. Learn to touch My face and to kiss My lips.

Learn a place where after you have presented your petitions before Me that you ask of Me to come to a place of knowing Me beyond any place that you've ever known, says the Spirit of Grace. For there is no place that I would rather that you be, for this is the fullness. Many say, "If I can win the lost, I will be a great pleasure to Him," and I say to you, yes, but I say to you that there is a greater pleasure in My heart and in the heart of My Father than winning the lost. There is a greater pleasure than you raising the dead. In My heart, My pleasure is that you spend time.

The greatest pleasure is what I have created you for and what I will return you to, that you spend time coming to know Me, and out of this will all things proceed. For the Church has not known Me in this way. My ministers have not presented Me this way, but I call you to this perfect place, to this place where love will never fail, says the Spirit of Grace. Touch My face. Touch My brow. Kiss My lips. Come to know Me as I whisper things to you.

You cannot hear the things that I will whisper if you're too busy. These things of which I tell you cannot be done in maintenance as you go about your day. This does not change My love for you, but you will not kiss My lips, and you will not hear My sweet whispers of intimacy as you go about your day in business without this place that I am calling you to. Then, if that place is fulfilled, as you go about your day, you will continue to hear the echoes and the resounding of intimacy and the sweet whispers in everything that you do and everything that you say. Listen to these words, for on the other side of these words are great harvests, first for you and then for them. I come to heal My Church, but My intent is beyond healing. My intent is intimacy, for this you will return to, says the Spirit of Grace.
