Prophecy060312b – Mar 12, 2006 All Things Are Possible

All things are possible. Many of you are looking through [natural] eyes, and you're asking questions and saying, "How can these things ever change?" Do you not know that before there was a universe, I existed? Who made the stars, the moon, and the sun? Who put the planets in orbit? Who held the galaxies in His hand long before the existence of man? Can I not conceive a plan, and can I not give the weight of My glory and the facilitation of power to that plan so intricately involved that it will go and render helpless those things that have come to destroy and to oppose? Can I not bring way beyond your imagination the exceeding greatness of My power in every situation, so much so that all things will be conformed to My image? says the Spirit of Grace.
