A Voice That Reports Truth to You and Cannot Lie

Know that I have a baptism to baptize you with, says the Spirit of Grace. It is not a one-time baptism, but it is a continual place in My Presence. Know that what you feel and sense is My hope within you, and that it is always available for you. This is what I invite you into on a continual basis. This is what I desire to baptize you with on a daily basis. So come unto Me, and know that you are not only going to make it but you are going to win and win big. For you have listened to the commentary of one whom I have not sanctified. His voice is not among those whom I have given you to listen to. Oh, but know there is another Voice that reports the truth to you and cannot lie. And if I say that you are going to win, you are going to win, says the Spirit of Grace.

So stop trying to figure out how you are going to win, but know that I am God, and I cannot lie. If I have said that you will win—you will win. Leave it to Me to figure out the details. Baptize yourself in this baptism and watch the details unfold around you, says the Spirit of Grace.
