Prophecy060412 – Apr 12, 2006 I Am a Friend Who Desires Friendship

In like speaking will I speak to you in these days, says the Spirit of Grace, and as I have said: He who has ears to hear, let him hear what the Spirit has to say. For many of you will find the jewels, the gems that you need, the missing pieces in the days ahead in prophecy. Do not simply wait for these times and these words of prophecy, for surely I will come to you, for I am a Friend who desires friendship.

I am a Friend who desires fellowship—I desire to dwell with you in the least and the most medial things of life. If you will speak to Me and commune with Me on a continual, moment by moment basis and invite Me into every—all—the secret places and chambers of your heart and your life, do not think that I will accuse you. But know that I will rescue you, and I will come to you, and I will be pleased that you would even open up your heart and speak to Me about the smallest things and even the personal things—even the things that you think might displease Me. Open up and speak them to Me that I may come in My pleasure because of your speaking and bring forth healing and restoration, says the Spirit of Grace.
