Prophecy060626 – Jun 26, 2006 This Place of Worship—Learn of Me

He is saying: In like manner, they which began this journey worshipped Me the same—they worshipped Me in places of persecution without the assistance of things that now most enjoy in helping them to go to a place of worship.

Know that this place of worship is dependent on nothing except My Presence and your worship to Me. Know that in this, I will always come, and I will always exalt you to a place that is seated with Me in Heavenly places. And if you will do these things, you will learn of Me, and I will come, and I will teach you the way to walk in. And you will be glad in the days ahead because you will find that all that the Father has, has been given to Me, and all that I have has been given to My Church, says the Spirit of Grace.
