

Prophecies – The Family Prayer Center – 2006

Prophecy060907a – Sep 7, 2006 Sit Still and Know That I Am God

Know that to the hungry heart, I am coming. To the thirsty soul, I desire to manifest Myself. For have I not said that I and the Father will come and manifest ourselves to those who seek that place? So know that in the years that are to follow, you will look back upon this time and these days, and you will know that the direction and compass was set inside of you that brought you to the place that you will stand in, and in that hour, with arms and hands lifted high, say, “Choices, choices—paths were made and formed, and bridges I have crossed as a result of choices in those days and things that I learned and received from Him as instruction.”

Know that I am coming for that purpose. I am coming to set and also for the purpose of bringing about the unity in My Body that I desire to pour out My Spirit. For those things that you cannot do of yourself, those things that cannot be healed in man’s wisdom will be brought forth in My wisdom, says the Spirit of Grace.

So let Me come and let Me be Father unto you and Grace unto you for in this hour. And in these I say: Come, not making promises, making pledges, and bringing your best effort, but rather sit still and know that I am God, says the Spirit of Grace.

Know this: Things that you could not and would not desire to go hunting for, know that those things even twenty-five years old, thirty years old, ten minutes old—everything is subject to this grace, says the Spirit of Grace. For the instruction is like this: You would do yourself a less service to even try to bring up something and set it in front of Him, but rather that you would just set your affection on Him and be absorbed in Him, and whatever He wants to sweep, He will sweep.

Prophecy060907b – Sep 7, 2006 When You Begin to Believe

If those of you who are called by My Name would begin to hold up those things, those petitions that you have believed for, for a long time, and settle it in your heart that all things are possible to them that believe, know that I will come on the line of where your faith has been. And I will begin to breathe upon that faith and supercharge it and bring it to a place that is acceptable, that I can come and do exceeding, abundantly above whatever you have been asking or even beyond that which you have been thinking that was possible.

Know this: I desire to come and do these things for you, says the Spirit of Grace. For what are the things that will bring these things to pass? Know that when your expectation, when you begin to believe those things that I have said will come to pass, when you begin to say, "Those things are possible simply because I believe," then know all things are possible to them that believe.

Nothing is impossible! Expect in these days those things which you have not seen before in the past, and I will come, and I will prove Myself to you as God. And I will prove these things were always available, yet most of the time they were hidden under the skies of religion, and you could not see. Man looked at these things in adoration and looked at them as to a door, the possibilities, but know that these things that once were only admired through a far looking glass, know that these things will be something that you will touch, and you will handle, and you will see the miracles. And you will see them not only in this place but you will see it in the market place, and you will see it in the place where you go out and where you come in, says the Spirit of Grace.

For what is it, says the Spirit of Grace, that could confirm these things in you more so than the very witness that I have placed within you? Do you not know that all of those who are called by My Name and herald My Presence and seek My face that I have placed inside of them a homing device? And that beacon is getting stronger and stronger the more that I approach planet Earth, and there is a cry within all those who seek My face. There is a witness inside of those who seek My face that those things which once were and those things which were once seen and those things that were once demonstrated in the book of Acts will be common place among you, says the Spirit of Grace.

They will not be just admired anymore. They will not just be looked at and say "Oh, these were the things of the forefathers." These will be of a certainty, says the Spirit of Grace, something that you participate in and you put your hands on, and you see, and you report back to the world these things are happening on a daily basis, says the Spirit of Grace.

For surely in this hour, I will come and lay My hands upon my handmaidens and upon My servants and pour out of My Spirit as I have promised in My Word, says the Lord. And as it was in those days, those who were ordained as deacons went on to change continents for My sake. Those who were once just ordained as those who would do what would be thought of as the medial service in the house of God went on, initiated by My Spirit, and took the initiative to go into places and raise up a standard and raise the dead and heal the sick and cast out devils.

For what is it if man does not recognize you? Or what is it if man does not ordain you? Or what is it if man says that there is a higher inner circle some place that only the aspiring can aspire to? Know this, says the Spirit of God, it is My utmost desire to fulfill My Word and pour out of My Spirit unprecedented, except in those days, it set the standard to know that upon all flesh I will pour out of My Spirit, says the Lord. And there will be no male nor female as in recognition of who can receive this outpouring or this power nor who will be ordained of man or set apart, but all will run to and fro, and those who seek My face will be instruments of My glory, says the Spirit of Grace.

For surely one will put a thousand to flight and two, ten thousand, for you will find that you will walk into situations and into troubled, troubled situations, and you will find yourself as the majority among many, says the Lord. Your presence that I will follow and the atmosphere that will fill the room, you will find that you being one will be the majority in that situation, says the Spirit of God. And before things are over, you will settle questions that many have, and then you will go on to settle the sin question and bring many into the Kingdom, says the Spirit of Grace.