

Prophecies – The Family Prayer Center – 2006

Prophecy061220a – Dec 20, 2006 There Is an Increasing Grace

Your love for Me will grow, says the Spirit of Grace, and the things that were hard will be made simple, and you will even question yourself, “Am I not trying as hard as I was before, when things seemed harder?” Know this: There is a difficulty that comes by a mixture of offering up part flesh into the effort and part spirit. But know there is an increasing grace when you learn the place of staying in My Presence, where I can trade off your weaknesses for My strength, and in that place, those things which were once difficult will seem much easier.

When you lean into these things, as in leaning into Me, and push towards Me, get ready to know that when others are having a difficult time serving Me and going forward because of the flesh, you will be enjoying the fruit of peace and quietness and a fruitful spirit inside of Me, says the Spirit of Grace.