

Prophecies – The Family Prayer Center – 2007

Prophecy070204 – Feb 4, 2007

I Am Your Glory and the Lifter of Your Head

Come unto Me, says He, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Know that even what you have conceived of Me and what has often been taught to you by others who meant well to instruct you, often they did not have My heart at hand, for they did not understand the mercy and the love and all that it is that makes a Father who He is.

This is My earnest desire for all who are laden with the burden of this world and under the oppression of sin and plans gone bad, to know that I am your Glory and the Lifter of your head. And if you will let Me, I will restore all that was ever lost, for this is My joy to bring all My sons and daughters home with Me, says the Lord.