

Prophecies – The Family Prayer Center – 2007

Prophecy070223b – Feb 23, 2007 Pray Your Eyes See With My Eyes

Pray long and pray often that your eyes will see with My eyes. Pray that the things that have shrouded the minds of men for many centuries will be taken off your eyes. For surely the one who sees and the one who hears will be available to be used. For they will press into Me past whatever is put in front of their path, and they will get past it because they will see with eyes that can see, and hear with ears that can hear.

So pray that you be one of the ones who are counted worthy for My anointing to rest upon you and break every yoke over the mind and the senses, that you continually walk in this place of renewal, says the Spirit of Grace.