Prophecy070530f – May 30, 2007 This Wave Will Clear Their Eyes

Some went out thinking the world had more to offer than the Church, thinking that the world could fulfill something they had not gotten inside of Me. Know this, says the Spirit of Grace, along with this wave of My glory, what is washing up on the beach of your life now, know this, that those who went out will come back in. And they will drink of this living water, and it will clear their eyes, and what the enemy convinced them of, they will forget to see any longer. And what they thought was void in their lives will be fulfilled inside of them. And they will seek no pleasure in the world, but they will only seek that pleasure which My Spirit can bring, says the Spirit of Grace.
