Prophecy070715 – Jul 15, 2007 A Glory That Proceeds from My Presence

Hear what the word of the Lord would say: Truly, truly, there is a glory that proceeds from My Presence, and this glory I have intended to touch not the Church with, for surely in the aftermath of all that you receive from Me, you'll be blessed, and you will receive in this, oh, but the world—that the world may know that you are My disciples by the love that comes from you. Know this glory is that abiding place of My Presence that you feel now. So know this: All who will press into this will find this glory come to rest on them, not only in this place but in other places that are usually not conducive to My Presence.

I will show up in the most unusual places in the days ahead, says the Spirit of Grace. And let no man take this joy from you. Do not wonder or worry who would mock or wonder concerning My Presence, for I have given this for you to come up higher. And the world, who does not understand this, will one day greatly thank you for your stand of obedience to walk into My Presence, because through My Presence, they got the answers they needed for their lives, says the Spirit of Grace.

So do not miss the opportunities like these to press into My Spirit, for surely in it there is a great outpouring of My Spirit for the lost and for the world, says the Spirit of Grace.
