Prophecy070718b – Jul 18, 2007 Practice My Presence—I Will Visit You

It pleases Me, says the Lord, great pleasure on the level of the pleasure that I receive—those who are offering up the free will gift in Heaven, and I find such who will not only preach and teach but will actually practice My Presence. For many, many speak about it, but few actually practice My Presence. For if you, the decision maker, if you will allow Me these moments of Presence and will not find other things to do, I will visit you.

This is the beginning of the end, the end of those things that you are asking for. You will find that in the renewal, in the revival, these same services that you felt were only the baby steps into those places, you will find by looking back, they were the monumental decisions of a church body who chose to practice Presence and thereby gave Me the authority to come and do what will one day look like a vast sea of humanity laid out in front of you. For in these [times of] Presence is what I will need to change the masses, for nothing less will do—nothing less. For you are right in pressing in. You are pleasing in your availability, so give yourself. Extend yourself and find My reward is sweet in these things, says the Spirit of Grace.

This is “self” serving, says the Spirit of Grace, for what you have need of is in this. It’s beyond asking, but just to sit brings the authority for the very thing that you desire to be made manifest. So serve yourself as you serve Me, and I will manifest the desire of your heart being made complete in My Presence.
