

Prophecies – The Family Prayer Center – 2007

Prophecy071202 – Dec 2, 2007 You Will Find That My Blood Is Sufficient

Even as those first drops of My blood touched the ground, I contemplated you, says the Spirit of Grace, that all would come under One—Me, Christ in you the hope of glory bringing together one Body in the earth—the Church.

So know this, that these drops of blood have not been shed in vain on your behalf. So if you will carry these things past this point, you will find that you will not only find Me here but you'll find Me in the most mundane, superficial parts of your life. You will find that My blood is sufficient, says the Spirit of Grace.