Prophecy080120 – Jan 20, 2008 Worship Stills the Avenger in Your Life

Worship stills the enemy and the avenger in your life, says the Spirit of Truth and Grace. So as you worship Me, you can know that while I am receiving you and building you up on your most holy faith that also a work in the Spirit is being done against those things that oppose you. So enjoy the ride and relax in Me and let Me, not of your own strength and might, but let Me take that place of authority I find in worship and work a work against those things that oppose you, says the Spirit of Grace.
