

Prophecies – The Family Prayer Center – 2008

Prophecy080406 – April 6th, 2008 Expect Change

That you would always in My presence expect change, saith the Spirit of Grace. Even beyond your sense realm, when it's hard for you to believe that change is possible, believe that every time you come into My presence whether privately or corporately that I am able to do a work in you and through you for change, saith the Spirit of Grace. Did I not say that exceeding, abundantly above all that you could ask or think according to that power that worketh in you? For this is that. This is that power. So, when I get the opportunity to invest Myself in you know this that the next scheduled event in your life is change in the areas that your desiring the most, saith the Spirit of Grace. So, when you yield to Me in these moments, it's past these moments that I'm concerned for you. So, take this to another level for you on your behalf, saith the Spirit of Grace.