Prophecy080618 – Jun 18, 2008 There Is a Baptism of My Love

Know this: There is a baptism of My love, says the Spirit of Truth, and many of you are beginning to walk in that baptism and stand on the threshold of the greater days of your life, says the Spirit of Grace. For the unfolding of My Word and the unfolding of the miraculous and the unfolding of the very special things that you hold dear to your heart, as in lost loved ones and people, of tremendous report to you, being born again—all this stands in that place, in that threshold which is to be passed by many of you.

Seek this: to know Me, to know Me in spirit and in truth and to follow Me down the path of the love that I will continually present to you in the Spirit, says the Spirit of Grace. For as you find this coming on you, as you find no respecter of persons and no partiality, you will find yourself looking through My eyes at My beloved. And as you love them as I love them, as I first gave My life for them, then you will also find your heart willing to give yourself for the brethren, and in that atmosphere, know that all things are possible, says the Spirit of Grace.
