

Prophecies – The Family Prayer Center – 2008

Prophecy080713 – Jul 13, 2008 A Work of Grace

Understand this, says the Spirit of Grace unto you, all those who worship Me out of spirit and truth, a time of great spoils is coming unto you, a time of great spoils and lightness of heart and spirit. For those who endure to the end, the same shall be saved and brought in to the fullness of what I have.

Know this, that seasons of refreshings are offered to everyone who comes under the sound of My voice and hears My Word. For you would say, “Why not today?” Know this, that as much as I can, I will get over to you My grace even now. But know this: The grace that you receive today is laid up on your account to work the work of grace inside of you, to give Me the authority to come in times ahead of you and bring forth great restoration, great restoration, so that when you come into My House and you enjoy My Presence, you will find that the easiest day that you found at this point and time was hard compared to what it will be in the future, because great lightness and refreshings are coming to you, says the Spirit of Grace.

Many think this is the end. They see what is presently in front of them and the place of the spirit and the walk of the spirit and the level of anointing that they walk in and others walk in, but know this, that as I am concerned that you have yet begun the vastness of the journey into the glory that I have provided unto you, says the Spirit of Grace, for the things that you rejoice over now will only be kid’s play, kid’s play in the time to come. So rejoice for what you have and rejoice for what will be, says the Spirit of Grace.

Hear: the word of the Lord would say, Truly, truly, it is My anointing that breaks the yoke. For as you enter into this, these places of worship in My Presence, you will find that the desire of your heart is answered in this place, says the Spirit of Grace. So give earnest heed to this place of My Presence and how you got there, for the way there is adoration, and the way there is strength in My Presence. And you will find on every line of your life that I will answer you with good things, says the Spirit of Grace.

How do I say these things, says the Spirit of Grace, to my beloved, to those whom I love and desire to speak so tenderly to? There is so much that I desire to take off of you. There is so much that I desire to relieve you from, says the Spirit of Grace. So as you wait in My Presence, things that you think would be a struggle for Me to relieve you from are so easily accomplished in My Presence.

I do not desire to shake you, as if to shake your very foundation, and bring any part of the same resemblance of fear that the world is impending and placing against your walk. For my stirrings are this, that a yielded heart brings forth great fruit, great fruit. And even in your repentance, I will be there to bring forth a readiness of heart and mind so that it is not a tearing, it’s not a ripping, it’s not a wound left gaping and oozing with all manner of unhealed properties.

Know this, says the Spirit of Grace, to the man, to the woman, to the vessel who will simply yield their members over to Me, in this I come. I come as a loving Father. As I said, how do I speak these things to you? For those who have been badgered by the world and also by the enemy, and last but not least your own self, have been part of the accusation. So come now, says the Spirit of God, and be healed, for I will work a work in you. And I will lift things off of you. And I will pull things off of you, and I'll deliver you. For deliverance is necessary in many cases, for you think the thing that you struggle—within your mind and in the flesh is only a part of your flesh, but know this, that other things are involved.

The enemy has sent different spirits of this world, but I will detach you from these things, for I have already positioned you in a place where everyone who calls out to Me, the Name of Jesus, that Name which is above every other name. Know that His Name brings forth a detachment of all those things which would hinder you and bring you down and subvert the thing that I have called you to do. Wait in My Presence. Let My glory bring forth the cleansing that you need and that the Church at large needs in these last days.

Come and wash us, Jesus. Wash us over and over again. Forgive us of the things that we know that are not pleasing and the things that we don't know, for You are not the accuser, you are just the Healer. We take this opportunity to come under Your glory, to come under Your healing, and to come under Your repentance. Jesus, wash us, examine us—we can't do it ourselves, that's why You are our Father, and that's why You speak tenderly to us.

We will not be perfected in this day alone but by every washing of the Spirit, and I worship You, and I glorify You—thank You, Jesus!

Break even now the spirits of poverty, says the Spirit of Grace. Break that spirit, for many are undergoing more than the present economy against their finances. Some have run into dead end roads.

He will speak specifically, says the Spirit of Grace. People owe you money, unordinary things taking place—this is not just the economy; this is not just certain things. You need to take the authority for Me to take the authority, so take this opportunity in My Spirit to pray for the people, and I will release a grace to them that will give them the grace to access more of My grace. And they will take authority in their homes, and they will take authority in their employment and their work place so that I can send My Spirit. And I can send My angels to go and gather these things up and bring forth a great resounding against what the enemy has brought at large.

Most of the time, My people become caught up in the maze, and they cannot see what is happening because it is disguised by what the world is going through. But I am telling you that there is more than what the world is going through. There are assignments against many of you.

