Prophecy080720 – Jul 20, 2008 In One Moment He Can Change Everything

A terrific price has been paid for your healing and for your deliverance, for your freedom of choice, for your ability to approach Me without shame and without condemnation. So why would you stand afar off waiting for something to come when everything has been provided? So sit down at My feet and know this, that not even your sin can hold Me back when you yield your members over. Know that everything is provided in My Son, and to him who looks to Me, all things, all things, all things are under His feet.

This is what church is about. Not you just going through what is played and what is sung, but you lose yourself and have your own church. Let Him come and talk to you. Let Him come and sanctify you over into—say, “Well, Pastor, it’s a lot of stuff.” Listen, where have you come to? You’ve come to His Throne, and in one moment He can change everything. So why don’t you come and magnify Him with all your heart and strength. Just pour yourself out before Him. Let Him come, let Him be to you what He wants to be.

Have I not called you, says the Spirit of Grace. Have I not termed you—have I not pronounced on you that you are kings and priests unto Me? Have I not said that I have ordained you, says the Spirit of Grace?

You must as a godly people rise up and take possession of your calling, says the Spirit of Grace. For I have ordained you as a New Testament church to take possession of your ministries and your calls and to move out and to begin to possess the land that you call “revival.” Know this, that I have provided these things for you, and yet so few take their position at the table. Know this, that I said judgment must first come to the house of God, but the enemy of your soul, the accuser of the brethren, and your flesh, have so twisted the things that I desire to do in this judgment.

Do you think that I will speak to you harshly when you come to Me as a Father? Do you think that I will not raise you up in peace and in love? For it is not I who hold your weaknesses against you, but it is you who have listened too long to the accuser of the brethren. Know this, that I desire to wash you with pure water and to wash your conscience.

Oh, for your weaknesses and the hour which you stand in cannot hold back My prevailing love to change you, hour after hour, from glory to glory, says the Spirit of Grace. So come to Me and let Me wash you continually and thoroughly. Let Me equip you with the equipping, so that when you go out, you are equipped, knowing that I am your Father, and I have provided all of everything you need to fulfill your earthly ministry and call.

If you would know this mystery, then your whole life would change. For My Body who waits for somebody else to feed them, you do yourself a great injustice, for I am your Chief Shepherd. And it is My good pleasure to give you the Kingdom and lead you into pastures, to flock you in places where you are able to graze and feed in My Word and let your gifts and calls come to fullness.

Know that I desire to move among you, each one of you, that your gift and call come forward with the full manifestation of the Spirit, not holding Me back. This comes from that place of grazing in My Presence and in My Word.
