Prophecy080820 – Aug 20, 2008 Walk With Me Until the End of the Thing

If you would hear what the Spirit of the Lord would say, for oftentimes against impending impossible odds, when things look insurmountable in life's situations, people bow their knee to the circumstances, only too soon to find out that I had a plan to get them past—not just a momentary plan to get them past, in a momentary victory, but one that was past anything that they themselves could have imagined. So stay with Me, walk with Me until the end of the thing that is standing in front of you, and you will find that if you will put your trust in the Lord and lean not to you own understanding, you will find that all of your ways will be directed of Me, says the Lord.

And the victories that I give, they are not to be compared with the victories that you stand in after you have waged your war and come to a peaceable place and concede to the thing and say, "I can live with this; I can live with this." Know that the victories that I give are so far exceedingly and abundantly above all that you could ask or think, that you will stand so far head and shoulders above the thing that opposes you that you will even begin to search for it and find it nowhere near you, but only the pastures, but only the green pastures and still waters that I promised to everyone that would put their trust in Me, says the Spirit of Grace.
