Prophecy080824 – Aug 24, 2008 Pressing Towards the Mark

Hear what the Spirit of the Lord would say: Understand these things and mark them thoroughly within your heart and with your minds. Know that soon the nations of the earth will pour into this place that I have provided in My Spirit. Watch as the midwives birth the churches, the places that are after the pure and undefiled.

Know this, that you are one of many taking on the torch to run with truth and with patience. Know: The greatest pressing—the greatest pressing towards the mark is always close to the end. So press as one who presses forward to the mark for the prize of the high calling. And know this, that when I gather you together like this and visit you as I visit you now, it is to first come and to bring forth healing and deliverance and the sense of victory that you have been instilled in and installed in My Presence and in My Person, says the Spirit of Grace.

Have I not said out of My Word that the husbandmen, the caretaker of the vineyard will first be partaker of the fruit thereof? So know this, that as I come to bring forth this impartation of grace, life, and healing to your minds and to your bodies and to your spirit, and to lift you up and give you the sense of victory as in who I have caused you to be in My Son, then know this, that the next thing that I will ask of you is to turn your authority on the nations of the earth with a sense of gratification and satisfaction as if all things are under your feet.

Now exercise the right of authority—right that has been given you: This honor hath all His saints. Have I not prophesied by My prophet to execute judgment upon the earth, to bind their kings with chains and their nobles with fetters of iron? Know this: This is the honor of all My saints, says the Spirit of Grace.

So it is a right thing for you to come in and to receive healing and judgment over your bodies and judgment over your souls, and then to know that I bring forth that inspiration of My Spirit that causes you to turn the Sword and pull down those things round about you concerning your families, and to know with a visualization of My Spirit that all of those whom you pray for are coming in, in this last day harvest of My Spirit.

Know the mind of Christ: Understand that I am not the author of confusion but, rather, I can take the enemy as I showed you by way of example in the Old [Testament] and [I] turned the confusion that exists inside the hearts of those who are in the world. I can turn it against so that the latter end is those who are being prayed for will be brought forth in salvation.

So know this: Some of you have those loved ones who are bound by relationships and caught up in circles of relationships and intertwined with different people of the world, who at this time are not seeking to hear My voice or to follow Me. But know this, that if you will pray, if you will pray, as I did then I will do now. I will cause the spirits to turn against each other, and relationships will be broken and things will be broken in that atmosphere that binds those spirits together so that individually I can go, first, to those to whom you are praying for. And I can bring them in to My Kingdom, wash them in My blood and cause them to be set on a one way course into My glory. Then I will go after all, even those who were in ungodly relationships and ungodly situations. I will use the authority to run out in front of these and cause them to come to a place, even when you are not presently praying their name out in prayer. I have got their latter end on My mind too, says the Spirit of Grace.

Know this, that the world is looking for you and looking for Me, says One, looking for you, says the Spirit. For as they looked, their hearts desiring a Savior, I sent—spared not My own Son.

Now know this, that the answers to their life unfold and are as close as your life to them, says the Spirit of Grace. So know that as they looked for the Firstborn, the First Begotten, now the representation of Him in the earth is you living and breathing ones whom I have instilled My spirit to, says the Spirit of Grace. So press forward and do not neglect the gift that has been given to you by the laying on of hands.

Know that to those whom much has been given, much is required, but know that My grace is sufficient for you to press on and to press forward and neglect not those things that have been given to you by My Spirit, says the Spirit of Grace. For indeed, indeed, great joy and jubilation and rejoicing of My Spirit is prepared for all those who will continue in well doing and will continue knowing that the laborers will be the first partakers of the fruit thereof, says the Spirit of Grace.

More and more miracles are coming, so test the waters, not as the pool of Bethesda—those waiting for a season when the angel came down and troubled the waters. For truly, I used those things for a season to testify of the One that would come. And the One who showed up that day and brought forth the healing that was out of season, without the troubling of the water, know this, that One has now introduced healing and miracles for all those who will step into Him, says the Spirit of Grace.

So now test the waters, bring the impotent man, bring the man who is sick and the woman who is demented, bring the straggling ones of this earth, and the ones on the outside, and know this, that it is of My utmost desire to trouble the waters every time you come together, says the Spirit of Grace.
