Prophecy080910 – Sep 10, 2008 Prepare for the Battle to Come

The Lord says: Prepare for the battle to come. You have angered the enemy. Prepare for the battle to come, for in the realm of the Spirit, the battle will be intense. If you see people leave this place do not allow yourself to be discouraged. When you see more people come in this place, let your encouragement be of Me, not in the numbers.

There are many, many people whom I have spoken to and tried to get them to come here, but they are resisting Me. There are many, many people whom I would have to be here to the point to where this facility could not contain them, but they have resisted Me. There are people who have left this place, who stopped listening to Me, and that is why they left.

There are those who have left this place, and it has touched your heart, and there has been sadness, and there has been sorrow. I say to you: Do not allow yourself to grieve over them. Pray for them, but do not let yourself be overcome with grief over them. For you must remember, they are the ones who made these choices, you did not make it for them. You delivered unto them the words of life, but they rejected those words. I have not forgotten them, and I am still working in their lives.

There are some who have left, and they will come back, and when they come back, continue ministering to them like they never left. Continue to seek Me, and I am going to begin releasing into you greater levels of My wisdom and comprehension of My Word.

You have served Me greatly, and I have used you greatly, but there is more coming. You have seen many ministers make mistakes, and you have seen them fall. Pay attention to that because you are fallible, but My strength released in you will keep you from falling. This is something that these other ministers had forgotten. And I say this to you tonight to encourage you, to encourage you in a mighty way. And I am proud of you My son, and I am going to continue to use you.

People are going to say good things about you, and people are going to say bad things about you. But I look at you, and I say that this is My son, and I love him, and he is submitting to Me. And My hand is upon you, and I will lead you into many places in the realm of the Spirit.

You have always been very cautious—rarely have you gotten ahead of Me. You have always allowed Me to take you by the hand and help you catch up to Me where I am. I thank you for letting Me use you. So many that I have called to the pulpit do not let Me use them in this way. My hand is going to be upon you, and there is a greater anointing that is coming.

I am going to use you mightily in My Kingdom. You are going to touch many lives. There are many lives that you have touched already that you don't even know about, but you will know it, and in the day that you are here with Me.

There is a great work that has yet to be done. Allow Me to expand your vision of what I have called you to do. Allow Me to help you see beyond the point that you are presently seeing. I will help you to see from My vantage point not yours. And when you begin to see from My vantage point, you will begin to see how your potential in Me is limitless.

So continue to seek Me. Continue to stay in My Presence and know this: I love you. I love you, and I will use you to bring glory to My Son.
