Prophecy081012 – Oct 12, 2008 A Wakeup Call

What think ye? What think ye to weigh in the balance, to understand what kind of form initiates God in your life? To go through a form even in something called church and not wait for My Spirit to come, know this: No ministry ever happens, no one ever gets ministered to or is My Body edified to go to the next level unless I am permitted to come, says the Spirit of Grace.

But you will not find what you are looking for in formulas. You will not find it in a regimented “A, B, C, 1, 2, 3, that’s the way I like it; it is a schedule for me; and it is what holds me together.” But know this, that your openness to Me, your spirit yielded to Me allows Me to come and put you back together, says the Spirit of Grace. So yield your members over to Me, yield them over to Me in ways that I can come and deal with the difficult parts of your spirit and your heart, says the Spirit of Grace

This is a call, a wake-up call, says the Spirit of Grace. For I am not angry with you nor will I chide you, but I want you to understand, this is a time and a season to become very active and alert in the Kingdom of God. Must I remind the intercessors that there is neither male nor female in the spirit? For often men equate the art or ministry of intercession to be given to the women. Know this that I have called My men, and I have called My women as one in the spirit to bring forth intercession in this day and hour, says the Spirit of Grace.

The greatest ministry that you can do for the Body and for the Kingdom and for the move of My Spirit in this place and for the ongoing effort and believing factor of revival is to stay on your face in intercession, says the Spirit of Grace. There is none that can earn enough, give enough, be there enough, supply enough to equate to the level that I need through what I can do only through intercession, says the Spirit of Grace.

You devalue yourself, think less of yourself and what I have given you when you equate yourself weak and unable to change things. Know that I have given you, beyond your faults, a place in the spirit to supersede your weaknesses and go into that realm where the enemy is battling you and the Church and bring down the strongholds, that My Word might be heard and things might become much, much, much more prosperous in these days, says the Spirit of Grace.

Hear what the word of the Lord would say, for many of you are trying to wait this out. You are believing that even in the midst of your suffering, in whatever area is your greatest challenge, that if you will just keep going and wait long enough even in your miserable state that things will change. Know this, they will not change. You will stay in the place that you are at next year at this time, except that it will increase the levels of torment that you are experiencing now unless you choose by an act of your will to go forward. I can do nothing for you—I will not supersede your will. If you do not speak My Word and if you do not pray the mysteries that I am asking you to pray, you will live in torment, and I can do nothing about it. Yet I desire above all things that you may prosper and be in health as your soul prospers, says the Spirit of Grace.
