I Will Prove That I Am God

I am the One who declares the end from the beginning, says the Spirit of Grace. For if you would like to see and know and understand the picture of the future that you hold in this thing, says the Lord, there will come in the days ahead over this city great, great open-air meetings where thousands will be harvested in just a few days' time, says the Spirit of Grace. And you might as well know that the basis of it will be the sound doctrine.

You will run ahead in this thing, and you will engineer it, and you will bring it forth. Where I can find a place where I can build that foundation that when the harvest comes in they'll be built upon the sayings, My sayings and not on man's tradition, you will know this, that they will be harvested by signs and wonders, says the Spirit of Grace. For truly, truly that great harvest will be brought about by the demonstration of the very things that you have called in, says the Spirit of Grace.

Those who are gainsayers and those who are caught up in religion and those who have come from places far away and brought their voodoo and witchcraft, they will have to say with all certainty [while] watching the miracles and watching the blind see and the lame walk and the deaf hear and the dumb speak and the demoniacs set free—they will have to proclaim with all certainty, that your God is God, says the Spirit of Grace.

Oh, get ready for exciting days. Get ready for exciting days. Get ready for exciting days, for the things that you have read about in the Old Testament and great heroes of faith will return on the scene, says the Lord. Those who do great exploits, those who know their God will be those whom I will lay My hand on, and they will be the sons of David rising again.

There will be the sons of those prophets who will rise up in great strength and run with a mighty vigor in My Spirit, says the Lord. And you might as well know, says the Spirit of Grace, that there will also be showdowns, those kinds that were recorded in those [Bible] books where I showed My power triumphant over all the powers of the enemy. Know this, that there will be showdowns where the enemy of this world and witchcraft and those who lift up darkness will rise up to try and prove their stand, and know that I will bring forth My glory in the midst as in those days, and once again, I will prove that I am God, says the Spirit of Grace.
