

Prophecies – The Family Prayer Center – 2009

Prophecy090121 – Jan 21, 2009 The Fastest way Always Is Rejoice

Have I not said, think it not strange the fiery trial that has come to try you as though some strange mysterious thing had come? For did I not say that in the world you will have tribulation? But know this: I have overcome the world, says the Spirit of Grace. So do not count yourself out of touch just because he comes, but know this, that when he comes, I have already received from My Father a remedy for you in the midst of your trial.

So the fastest way to escape and the fastest way to live always victorious is rejoice, and again I say rejoice, says the Spirit of Grace. Learn this habitual place in the springs of your life. Learn it in the summers and in the winters when things are difficult so that the habit is to remain a place of rejoicing, so no matter what comes or no matter what goes, you are always in a season of refreshing and rejoicing, says the Lord.!

Do not wait if you find yourself now with small problems—rejoice. If you find yourself in medium problems—rejoice. And if you find yourself in mega [huge] load—rejoice, says the Spirit of Grace. For know this, that at some point you must learn this habitual place. So do not wait for the next refreshing time to begin to practice this, but no matter what state you find yourself in, rejoice, and again I say, rejoice.