Prophecy090322d – Mar 22, 2009 This Anointing

This is the only kind of anointing—not this that will come from this church but this type of anointing, the saturation of your senses. And it takes you out of the place where you are dealing out of your mind, out of your senses, and you are dealing with situations out of your strength. He said: Tell them that it's the only kind of anointing that because of where the world is at right now that will begin to reconcile the world.

Intellectual discourse right now, at this point in the dawn of man, is not going to do it. Door to door canvassing is not going to do it. A good anointed tract is not going to do it. All those things can help, but it's going to take the same kind of anointing that He walked in, for you not only to be a witness to a neighbor next-door but to get your family out of the clutches [of the enemy].

He's coming back, and whether you believe that—we go: "We know this, that we are going to be caught up; we are going to be changed." Whether you believe that He'll turn right around and settle right back here for that thousand years, or we're going to go with Him seven more there, one way or the other He is coming back, and this was His message. The heart and crux of the whole thing, the heartbeat of God was God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever world believe in Him would not perish. That means not just physically perish but forever be separated from God. They would not perish, but they would have eternal life.

That's His heart. That's everything from Adam to Christ and Christ afterwards. That's all He's ever desired is that man be reconciled to God.
