

Prophecies – The Family Prayer Center – 2009

Prophecy090419 – Apr 19, 2009 Out of Your Belly Will Flow Rivers

While I was with you did I not speak this mystery on this wise, that out of your belly should flow rivers of living water? says the Spirit of the Lord. For I did not say that from out of you would come a pool or reservoir? For I spoke of a river that was forever, continually fed by a source, and I am that Source, says the Spirit of Grace.

Know this, that river was also spoken of that out of your belly shall flow rivers. There will be places that I will take you. I'll take you through My Spirit through that gift, and rivers will run through you—every river that is necessary for your edification and to take you higher and higher and higher. And you will no more receive from one river. I will turn, and you will say, “My, what is this? Another tongue? It's a gift—something changed inside of me.”

Oh, but it will be the thing that you need for the hour and the season of your life, and that river will no more run dry than another river will run through you, stronger and stronger, says the Spirit of Grace. For I desire that My Church would always be moving continually in the power of My might. This is why I spoke of rivers flowing out of your belly, says the Spirit of Grace.