Steady in the Fight

That you would rehearse within you at all times the pattern that I set forth that you worship me. Know this that my coming is soon. My coming is soon, saith the Spirit of Grace. But in between now and that time, I have scheduled a great harvest, saith the Spirit of the Lord. For this is why the enemy fights with the smokescreen, so seductive that he camouflages himself behind what appears to be things of the natural all the while fighting from a place of the spirit. But know this all of you. Know that as I have promised the city will be turned upside down, saith the Spirit of Grace.

You'll find in the hour like the birthing of a child and even now is that there's a close squeeze. There is a tight tightening in the spiritual realm and those things would try to abate and hold back and discourage many, know this that if you'll take this stand and know that the things that are fighting against you or meant to stop this and you'll march on past and you'll find that in all of everything that he throws at you that I provide a joy in the midst of all these things, saith the Spirit of Grace!

But know of Certainty that these harvest times are right around the corner, and you'll be so glad that you held it steady in the fight. You'll be so glad when you were part of it and you'll say it was well worth the fight, saith the Spirit of Grace.
