Prophecy090708a – Jul 8, 2009 A Solid Place

To all ears that listen to hear the approval of your Father: I see your times of struggle. In the spirit, you wage against feelings and the emotions just to lift your voice at times to magnify Me through faith. Know this, that this is of truth working a great revenue of reward for you, says the Spirit of Grace. And when I say a great revenue of reward, I am speaking not just in the ages to come, but you will inherit in this life those seasons of which you will turn to Me, and your heart will be so overrun by My love and peace and power that you will be totally taken outside of yourself, and your heart will not be able to express the seasons of joy and peace and power and love.

Know these things: It is My pleasure—it has brought Me great pleasure every moment that you give yourself against the things that oppose you in this life. And know this, that it will reap a great harvest in the days ahead. And do not think in your heart concerning your weaknesses, for anytime you expel your energy towards Me in this, know this: The accuser of your brethren stands on your right hand so often.

Know this, that I am taking you in a solid, solid place to distinguish his voice from My voice. For in times past, there was a mixture in your emotions, and you didn't know whether to let go or to hold on. And was I there? Was I working a work to bring something out of you? As if to bring things to your thought life of which maybe you thought, and "This is just how He talks," you thought. Maybe you weren't graduated past these things, but oh, I want you to know that from the moment that you place your faith towards Me as your strength and mortification, it's not when you feel, it's not even when you feel free, it is the moment that you exercise your faith.

I stand up and testify as your brethren, the Lord of Heaven, that I have made you entirely free, says the Spirit of Grace. Oh, but I promise, I promise you, the feelings will come. And the accuser will forever—He expressed it this way: Who would want to do this; who would want to? You wouldn't want to really go looking for him, the devil. But the feeling on the inside was so triumphant and so distant from past squalls of storms that once raged against your emotions. You felt so free. This is all that I can explain—it's is what I see—you felt so free. You are trying to hunt him down just to see if you can get a peep out of him. That's how free you are in that place that He is describing.
