Prophecy090708b – Jul 8, 2009 Don't Even Worry

Don't even worry about those things that you've been lifting up at times, where your heart at times wondered if your heart was clear with a brother or a sister, someone you were determining to walk in love with. Take no care, for know this: As you give yourself over to these places of submission and yielding to Me, you don't have to be the one to secure these places.

Even those around about you who sometimes are the closest, the enemy comes without their knowledge—really it's without their knowledge—and tries to use words spoken or a deed done to interrupt the peace that you are walking in. And then, the Holy Spirit says, that the enemy uses the interruption, the momentary interruption of your emotions to accuse you, as if you have not come to the level you know in the spirit that love dictates.

This is where He said: Don't be careful. Know that I am growing you up, and I have already seated you in a position with Me that I look at you daily. I look at you daily as this place already being attained and that your accuser is under your feet, says the Spirit of Grace.
