

Prophecies – The Family Prayer Center – 2009

Prophecy090812 – Aug 12, 2009 An Anointing That Abideth Within You

Take these times, these times of hovering—the incubation of My Spirit—to listen inwardly, says the Spirit of Grace. For I have declared unto you that you have an anointing that abideth within you and cannot lie, says the Spirit of Grace. For this anointing confirms all things, directs all things, brings all of everything that I am to you, with an absolute confirmation whereby which you are able to stand upon all of My promises and know the wisdom that is poured out to you as an individual, says the Spirit of Grace.

For in following this type of communion, I will come, for I have sent My Spirit who confirms all things to you. For there is nothing that is challenging you now, even on multiple fronts, that He does not have a wisdom that if you will follow through intimacy, He'll guide and direct you, give you wisdom and confirmation of My Word on a moment by moment basis.

Learn this, says the Spirit of Grace, that many in yesteryear took the blatancy of My Word and walked out of their tribulation but understood little about the intimacy which comes through fellowship and the guidance of He who is that continual anointing within you and cannot lie, whereby which I have sent Him to speak the truth and confirm the way in front of you. So know this: If the blatancy of My Word is trusted and the Holy Spirit is leaned upon for every moment and every tribulation, you'll find that something comes to you exceedingly abundantly above all that which you could think or ask, says the Spirit of Grace.