

Prophecies – The Family Prayer Center – 2009

Prophecy091115a – Nov 15, 2009 The Heart and Soul of the Father Is Love

The wars and fightings I prophesied through James who said: Wherein come these wars, fightings, strifes, and debates? Know this, that the enemy knew this much about My Church, that the things I said in 1 John was the very heart and the very soul of the Father.

If one thing I could give you, and one thing I could tell you, over and over again: Love one another, says the Spirit of Grace, for in this is all of the law and all of the prophets fulfilled. In this, every marriage is healed. In this, every body is healed. In this, every mind is restored, and strength is renewed, says the Spirit of Grace.

Know this, that your enemy and all his venomous attacks, witchcraft, emulations, seditions, and everything that could possibly raise its ugly head is brought underfoot by love, says the Spirit of Grace. For oftentimes, he'll cloud your mind, and he'll even give you aspirations of seeking after this, running after that, finding all exciting kinds of revelation, this, that, and the other, all to keep you camouflaged and smoke screened against the reality of what truly sets the world free, says the Spirit of Grace.

So do not pass this over as, "Oh, a lovely fruit" to be had at one's disposal. Know, this is My heart. This is My soul, and if you possess this, you possess all things, says the Spirit of Grace.