Desperation

Know this: My word unto you is “desperate,” says the Spirit of Grace. For those who will hunger and thirst will come to a place in Me that they will find the reality of the beauty, the God-given desperation that comes to a heart that cannot be relinquished with anything else but more of Me, says the Spirit of Grace.

Know this, that all whose hearts are crying, “God, I must be desperate for You.” I will crown you with this in these hours, says the Spirit of Grace.
