Prophecy100314-March 14th, 2010 Mountains of Grace

(Prophecy uttered before a grace line where instructions were given prior to receiving)

For hear the word of the Lord (specific instructions to those who stand hear in this place and all who will receive it in any place) Know this that the price for which you are standing here was paid all in Him saith the Spirit of Grace. Do you not know and can you not conceive that there are mountains and mountains and mountains of My grace to be provided for you in this life, inexhaustible plains, countries of grace, inexhaustible to the natural mind to deal with every kind of inadequacy on your part? For I made room for you in the atonement, not just in your one time coming and being born again but I made room for every part of your journey in this life saith the Spirit of Grace. So know this that when the torment of being less than or guilt or fear of inadequacy before Me comes on you know this, this is not of Me. For you are far more, far more difficult to you own self and harder to be dealt with by reason of your own self than what I come with, My yoke is easy and My burden is light. For when I approach you I not only approach you with a sense of change but I approach you with all the dividends wherewith change can be made saith the Spirit of God. Hallelujah!

So imagine this. Imagine this on your mundane Mondays and cloudy sky days and depressive moments clouding in and inadequacies coming against your mind and the riddle of the past why it did not work out or make sense? Envision this My arms outstretched between heaven and earth and His blood paying all the price. For know this, by the sprinkling of this blood is every conscience made pure saith the Spirit of Grace. (Tongues...)

So your instruction at weak moments is to lift up holy hands whether in a crowd, out of crowd, by yourself even when you are among those in your heart lift up your hands inside of your spirit and worship Me for the blood that can not fail saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah Jesus!
