Prophecy100425c – Apr 25, 2010 Stand as Kings and Priests

Many, many have bought the lie. Many, many have bought the lie and said that things are coming, and the things that are reported, because you've been told this is the way that you are supposed to respond. Know this, that the world can come to an end and every travesty on your right hand and on your left, and you have nothing left but Me. Know this, that you can still stand with an absolute resolve as if you were the king of the earth, as I have called you as kings and priests, says the Spirit of Grace.
