

Prophecies – The Family Prayer Center – 2010

Prophecy100523b – May 23, 2010

Mysteries Are Fully Seen in the Fullness of My Presence

It is with foggy, misted—Paul said it like this: we look through an opaque glass, smoky glass at the mysteries, but then face to face. Even what you know, you don't know except through Me, says the Spirit of Grace. And when the enemy comes to fight you and to fight your flesh, it is not I who condemns you, but it is your enemy. And days or seasons or just periodical busy times away from constant renewal— it is I who renews your senses to My truth, says the Spirit of Truth. For what you see clearly now becomes opaque and misty the further you are dismissed from washings that come, that wash from you those things that heavily set on you by the residue of this world.

Yes, mysteries can abide in you mightily, but know this: They are abated. They are abated and not fully seen except in the fullness of My Presence, says the Spirit of Grace. So as you enter into My Presence, not only now but on a continual basis, understand that the things that you know will be of the value by which I have portrayed them to you, and they will work great wonders inside of you, says the Spirit of Grace.

Even the man who knows the mystery of My love which says I cast out all fear, he may know or she may know that mystery and attain to it, and attest and testify, “Yes, that is the truth; I know it is the truth,” but it takes the Holy One who brings the unction of that truth manifesting in you in Presence to bring the reality, the living reality of that truth to be lived out, not just in the senses where revelation is at. But know this: Revelation and the Presence of My glory work hand in hand to produce the One of whose image you are made in the likeness of, says the Spirit of Grace.