Prophecy100627a – Jun 27, 2010 Your Purpose Is Sons and Daughters

Know and understand that I have you here on this planet for a reason and for a purpose. The pleasure that you bring Me first in the place of intimacy was My first plan for you as a Father. But know this as a Father knows, that treasury, the respect of Heaven is all of those who've come, the sons and daughters, and joined themselves to Me in this place, who throughout the ages have heard and received and taught others to receive. So know this: The greatest joy in this life that you live is to give birth to sons and daughters.

Know that in the Spirit, your purpose for being is ready—it is ready to come online to the place where you live your life to the fullness, in the midst of persecution, in the midst of despair around you. Your crowning achievement will be to watch them come in and gather themselves and throw themselves down and cry out for mercy, and you declare unto them, “Whosoever sins are remitted, they are remitted unto them,” says the Spirit of Grace.

For do not, as intercessors and those standing for family members, look at their faces nor hear their voices, but speak unto them almost oblivious to their response. Set it in yourself to hear only what I am saying, and speak to them and speak about them to Me concerning them coming in, in these last days, without any sign that you see in the natural. For you've waited for some turning in the natural to give you some kind of hope. I say: Do not rest in the hope of the things that you see but rest in that which is invisible taking place by My Spirit, says the Spirit of Grace. Do not listen to their responses nor watch their facial expressions or their actions, but go about as if that which you are seeking Me, for them, is accomplished says, the Spirit of Grace.
