

Prophecies – The Family Prayer Center – 2010

Prophecy100725a – Jul 25, 2010 Fear Is the First to Go

The first thing to go is the fear, says the Spirit of Grace. For even those fine line areas, which are harder to be detected because there seems to be nothing that's blatant, know this, the more that you are absorbed by Me and the more that I can take over, I trade all weaknesses for strength, says the Spirit of Grace. The first thing to go, whether detected or undetected, is fear. Fear and torment, predominately that fear that has any suggestion of whether I will or whether I won't, for I say unto you: In Christ, all My promises are yea and amen to them that believe, says the Spirit of Grace.

Practice these things and believe Me against all odds, and you will find yourself growing by leaps and bounds, and the reward and even the promise that things are changing towards a more notable day of power will be the absence of fear and torment, says the Spirit of Grace.