

Prophecies – The Family Prayer Center – 2010

Prophecy100815a – Aug 15, 2010 As I Love You, So Do I Love Them

That you would know My love for them, My love for them, says the Spirit of Grace, for the family that is outside of the Father presently. For everything that I gave for them to come in and be part of this inheritance, ask Me says, the Spirit of Grace, to reveal the freedom and the love that I have for these that are without.

For you it is difficult to understand, but I will get this over to you in days ahead. I am pleased with you coming into Me, and I am pleased with you singing unto Me and worshipping Me with all diligence of your heart, but understand this: Nothing that you can do can cause Me to love you anymore than I have always loved you, says the Spirit of Grace. So if you understand this, then you can have an understanding towards the next. That those who are out there today who curse Me, who have no thought of praising Me, who are even in a potential place of going to hell, know this, that I love them, and I cherish them just as much as I love and cherish you who sing My praises from your lips, says the Spirit of Grace.