

Prophecies – The Family Prayer Center – 2010

Prophecy100829 – Aug 29, 2010 You Are That Generation

How I have longed for these days once again, says the Spirit of Grace. For I saw a generation come up in the earth, and therefore I prophesied through the revelation that I gave to My Son, and John recorded it. And before all these great and notable things came upon the earth there was a generation that stood up in the Son and declared the works of their Father. Know this, that you are that generation. And know that you are not alone, for all over this land and around the world, I am raising up ones who love Me more than they love the world.

Know this, that in this great and notable outpouring, all those who lift their hands and worship Me now will find a place in this outpouring and will be used beyond measure, beyond imagination. The blind will see, the lame will walk, you will be hooked up with [church] bodies all over this nation, and you will see them and appreciate them with the appreciation that I see them and appreciate them with, for you need one another in this last go of it, says the Spirit of Grace.

Receive these things and walk in Me, for great joy is coming on the earth, says the Spirit of Grace.